STACEY LOUIDICE RECEIVES VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR AWARD

ALBANY, N.Y. – Stacey Loudice, a volunteer at Dominican Village in Amityville, NY has received the 2018 Volunteer of the Year Award from the New York State Center for Assisted Living (NYSCAL). The award was presented on June 26 at the 2018 NYSCAL Awards Banquet during the Association’s annual conference in Rye, NY.

Stacey Loudice has volunteered at Dominican Village for two years, spending more than 120 hours in the past year visiting residents, leading craft sessions and serving refreshments. Not only does she volunteer at all their special events, she creates many of the decorations and prizes. The facility has been able to add new artistic programs to the calendar because she is there. The love she brings to every task and interaction demonstrates how she holds each resident in the highest regard. Stacey’s presence enriches the lives of every member of their community.

“Stacey’s commitment and dedication to our residents is greatly appreciated,” said Paul Wasser, President/CEO of Dominican Village. “Her volunteerism is truly exemplary and deserving of this prestigious award from NYSCAL.”

NYSCAL’s Volunteer of the Year Awards Program recognizes outstanding volunteers serving in adult care/assisted living facilities.

Winners received an engraved obelisk and were invited to attend the NYSHFA/NYSCAL annual conference.
