LAURA ROBINSON AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP

VERONA, NY – Laura Robinson, RN, Unit Manager at Ten Broeck Commons in Lake Katrine, NY has received a 2017 James D. Durante/Ruth E. Stafford Nurse Scholarship from the New York State Health Facilities Association/New York State Center for Assisted Living (NYSHFA/NYSCAL). The award was presented on May 4th at the 2017 Scholarship Awards program during the association’s annual Nurse Leadership Conference in Verona, NY.

Ms. Robinson is a resident of Kingston, NY.

The James D. Durante/Ruth E. Stafford Nurse Scholarship is granted to nursing students who are currently advancing their skills and knowledge in the nursing profession and are dedicated to providing high quality care to residents of long-term healthcare and assisted living facilities. The scholarship is administered by the Foundation for Quality Care, Inc., a non-profit educational and research foundation affiliated with NYSHFA/NYSCAL.

“The need for qualified nursing staff in New York State is more critical than ever,” said Stephen Hanse, Esq., President and CEO of NYSHFA/NYSCAL. “This scholarship was established to assist nurses in their education. It is vitally important to provide support to encourage individuals to pursue a rewarding career in nursing.”

“Laura is a dedicated employee who strives to meet the needs of both our staff and residents,” said Katie Perez, administrator of Ten Broeck Commons. “Her dedication, skills and compassion will serve her well as a nurse in the long term care setting.”
